DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding amended claim 1 and claims 2-20, prior arts do not disclose a system for dynamically allocating bandwidth between one or more customer services to provide a switched data network for broadcast data comprising a combination of:

- (1) a dynamic bandwidth allocation module to receive customer usage information from the service nodes and determining the bandwidth allocations accordingly and to communicate the bandwidth allocations to the customer service providers.

Regarding amended claim 21 and claims 22-38, the prior arts do not disclose a method for dynamically allocating bandwidth between one or more customer services to provide a switched data network for broadcast data, comprising a combination of:

- (1) allocating the bandwidth of the system to the one or more different customer service providers based on the usage of the services by the customers and the bandwidth requests of each service providers wherein the bandwidth assigned to each service node is dynamically adjusted based at least in part on the usage of the services by the customers of the service node.

Regarding amended claim 39 and claims 40-56, the prior arts not disclose a dynamic bandwidth allocation device, comprising a combination of:

- (1) a dynamic bandwidth allocator that allocates the bandwidth of a system between a plurality of different customer providers to a plurality of service nodes wherein the bandwidth assigned to each customer service provider for each service nodes dynamically adjustable based at least in part on the usage of the services by the customers and the bandwidth requests of each service providers;

(2) the dynamic bandwidth allocator further comprising a bandwidth manager that receives bandwidth requests from the service nodes and assigns bandwidth to each of the customer service providers based upon the bandwidth requests from the service nodes and a re-multiplexer module, based on the bandwidth allocation decisions of the bandwidth manager.

Conclusion

2. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
